

PHOTOS: Shingling of the new St. Michael Church begins under stormy skies

Advertisement

Advertisement

Under stormy skies and occasional showers, workers with safety harnesses began the task of shingling the huge roof of the new St. Michael the Archangel church building in Pawcatuck on Tuesday, June 27, 2017. | Harold Hanka, The Westerly Sun